There was not cracking on the outer, or inner, sides of the windshield's glass. This damage was determined to be consistent with the of a rock / stone. M.S.P. 122 High St. At the time it appeared that he was attempting to stop me as I went by. He was holding up his hand up and it appeared as if he was crying. I stopped and spoke with Mr. Thorpe and could tell right away that he had medical issues. He appeared to be confused and did not make sense when he spoke. He did say that he lived at 122 High St. I escorted him inside. I spoke with his wife on the phone. (she was at work at the time and Mr. Thorpe was alone) Mrs. Susan Thorpe said that Mr. Thorpe has dementia. Mr. Thorpe wondered down stairs and I later follow him. I approached him in the basement just as he was pulling a 12 gauge from a unlocked trunk. The gun was later taken for safe keeping and tagged at the station. Det. Gordon advised me that she would possibly be looking into filing an elderly abuse report.

One child finally un-locked the door and entry was made. Officer Wollender and I cleared the apartment, locating the parents sleeping in their bedroom. Same identified as Joshua and Nichole Smith. No injury's or domestic violence type situation found as both indicated they had been "up late" and were "sleeping in." Same were advised of child(s) 911 call.

Narrative:
Assisting Mr.Herkner in relation to previous incident, Call#05-18487. The past incident was in relation to $1500.00 worth of work done to a vehicle by Mr.Herkner. At that time, a written agreement between the involved parties was to be completed, for payment to be made.

Mr.Herkner was into the station today, requesting assistance as the party, Joyce Politis, has still not made any payments ($1400.00 total). It should be noted that on that previous call Ms.Politis gave false personal information to police-see call entry. I contacted Ms.Politis by telephone, who identified herself as said person and acknowledged her past involvement with Mr.Herkner. Ms.Politis acknowledged that she signed a written agreement for said payment and acknowledged that she still owed $1400.00 to Mr.Herkner. Ms.Politis stated that she did not intend to pay Mr.Herkner the money owed and that he would have to take her to court. Ms.Politis then hung up on me during conversation. I advised Mr.herkner of court options.
